

BENSON FORECASTS BOOM IN COURSEING.

Spring Season Will Be Marked by Big Stakes and Added Money Prizes.

MR. ORTHWEIN'S PURCHASE.

South St. Louis Sportsman Has Secured a Large String of Greyhounds From California.

The Board of Directors of the Pastime Courseing Club met last night at the residence of Mr. G. L. Crawford and resolved to open the spring courseing season on March 1. It is proposed to give about eight or ten miles and to add money to the stakes each week. It is the intention of the club to put the sport upon even a higher basis than last season.

The great number of greyhounds coming into St. Louis now makes a large nomination for each week an assured fact. Secretary Benson gives owners notice that they can commence betting for the opening meet. The club will offer for competition a valuable challenge cup, which must be won three times to become the property of any individual.

Mr. Ralph Orthwein has purchased the entire kennel of Mr. H. C. Lewis, of California, and Mr. William Benson will take the cost for them. The list includes: Siquette, Tibbels, Varsity, and will have two more from Mr. Curtis's California kennel by the time the season opens.

Mr. H. C. Lewis has sent four dogs on to run in the early meetings. They are in the hands of Mr. Eugene Nally, Mr. C. P. Benson, and Mr. William Benson. A Northern Surprise-Quick Stiff sapsling, which she has named Quick Surprise, Mrs. Benson's favorite, has been sent to the puppies, five in number, have all been put in training for the opening of the spring season.

Mr. G. Lacy Crawford is rapidly recovering from his recent injury, a broken leg. His entire kennel will be in readiness to campaign early in the spring.

T. Bartels is in San Francisco and has made arrangements to run his greyhounds on the coast this spring. He has ten with him.

John Grace writes from Frisco that there is quite a boom in courseing. There the attendance is larger than ever in the history of the sport, and the horses are running stronger and better than ever.

The park owners have found it necessary to add on five additional books. Several friends of Judge Robinson are purchasing greyhounds. Mr. Robinson's friends are fast depleting the stock on hand of the Lawrence, Kas, and others.

Slipper Ekan is anxious to give up his pastime and run a string of the spring and fall and may do so. The club members, however, are not anxious for such a change.

CLASS B TOURNEY WON BY HUTCHINGS.

George Hevner Badly Defeated in Deciding Game—Winner Makes
High Average.

Clarence Hutchings captured the championship of the class B three-cushion billiard tournament at the Grand last night by administering an overwhelming defeat to George Hevner, the former Philadelphia.

Starting as a poor favorite, Hutchings displayed unusual brilliancy of form and completely surprised the spectators by walking away from his nervy opponent, winning the game by the score of 40 to 23.

Interest in the game was intense, and on account of the form previously shown by both men there was much speculation on the result. Before the game Hevner ruled a steady favorite, but after the first few innings, when Hutchings had given an inkling of his true form, the odds were made.

Hutchings rapidly built up his score after the first few innings and remained in the lead all the night. The result of the game was not so one-sided as the odds would seem to indicate. Hevner played for his shots and paid but little attention to safety play.

On the other hand, Hutchings played a more conservative game, but it is not often that he displays such form as he did last night. The game, however, was not so one-sided as the odds would seem to indicate.

Deciding Game—Winner Makes
High Average.

Clarence Hutchings captured the championship of the class B three-cushion billiard tournament at the Grand last night by administering an overwhelming defeat to George Hevner, the former Philadelphia.

Starting as a poor favorite, Hutchings displayed unusual brilliancy of form and completely surprised the spectators by walking away from his nervy opponent, winning the game by the score of 40 to 23.

Interest in the game was intense, and on account of the form previously shown by both men there was much speculation on the result. Before the game Hevner ruled a steady favorite, but after the first few innings, when Hutchings had given an inkling of his true form, the odds were made.

Hutchings rapidly built up his score after the first few innings and remained in the lead all the night. The result of the game was not so one-sided as the odds would seem to indicate.
